

Hall Road Newsletter

Welcome to the Hall Road Newsletter,

Five months after Hall Road residents voted to form a committee that represents the area, your new neighbourhood association is up on its feet and walking. The 10-member committee has been gathering regularly since the April meeting in East Kelowna Hall to work out how the association will operate. We're happy to announce we have registered the Hall Road Neighbourhood Association as a society with bylaws and a governance structure.

We've set up a website – www.hallroad.ca – and signing up to the discussion forums is available. We have a bank account and you can write us an email by using info@hallroad.ca Please share this address with your neighbours so everyone's included.

Most important, we're gearing up for a get-to-know-you gathering at Johnson Road Park from noon to 2 on this Sunday, Oct. 1. The City of Kelowna is providing a tent and games, and everyone's invited to provide a dish or food harvested in your garden that you'd like to share. Bring your kids, have your own cup and take along a beverage. Come break bread with us, meet your neighbours and learn about becoming an association member.

We're excited about becoming a conduit between the neighbourhood and City Hall so residents are better informed and have a stronger influence on the area's future.

Stay tuned for future updates as we change our focus from governance to action.
